THANKFULNESS FOR WORLDLY BLESSINGS.

“WELL, scholar, having now taught you to paint your rod, and we having still a mile to Tottenham High Cross, I will, as we walk towards it in the cool shade of this sweet honeysuckle hedge, mention to you some of the thoughts and joys that have possessed my soul since we met together. And these thoughts shall be told you, that you also may join with me in thankfulness to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for our happiness. And that our present happiness may appear to be the greater, and we the more thankful for it, I will beg you to consider with me how many do, even at this very time, lie under the torment of the stone, the gout, and toothache: and this we are free from. And every misery that I miss is a new mercy; and therefore let us be thankful. There have been, since we met, others that have met disasters of broken limbs; some have been blasted, others thunder-struck; and we have been freed from these and all those many other miseries that threaten human nature: let us therefore rejoice and be thankful. Nay, which is a far greater mercy, we are free from the insupportable burden of an accusing, tormenting conscience—a misery that none can bear; and therefore let us praise Him for His preventing grace, and say, every misery that I miss is a new mercy. Nay, let me tell you, there may be many that have forty times our estates, that would give the greatest part of it to be healthful and cheerful like us, who, with the expense of a little money,

OF A FREE-MASON,
ETC., ETC.

I.—Concerning GOD and RELIGION.

A MASON is obliged, by his tenure, to obey the moral law ; and if he rightly understand the art he will never be a stupid atheist nor an irreligious libertine. He, of all men, should best understand that God seeth not as man seeth; for man looketh at the outward appearance, but God looketh to the heart. A mason is, therefore, particularly bound never to act against the dictates of his conscience. Let a man's religion or mode of worship be what it may, he is not excluded from the order, provided he believe in the glorious architect of heaven and earth, and practice the sacred duties of morality. Masons unite with the virtuous of every persuasion in the firm and pleasing bond of fraternal love ; they are taught to view the errors of mankind with compassion, and to strive, by the purity of their own conduct, to demonstrate the superior excellence of the faith they may profess. Thus masonry is the centre of union between good men and true, and the happy means of conciliating friendship amongst those who must otherwise have remained at a perpetual distance.

II.—Of the CIVIL MAGISTRATE, SUPREME and SUBORDINATE.

A MASON is a peaceable subject to the civil powers, wherever he resides or works, and is never to be concerned in plots and conspiracies against the peace and welfare of the nation, nor to behave himself undutifully to inferior magistrates. He is cheerfully to conform to every lawful authority ; to uphold, on every occasion, the interest of the community, and zealously promote the prosperity of his own country. Masonry has ever flourished in times of peace and been always injured by war, bloodshed, and confusion ; so that kings and princes, in every age, have been much disposed to encourage the craftsmen on account of their peaceableness and loyalty, whereby they practically answer the cavils of their adversaries and promote the honour of the fraternity. Craftsmen are bound by peculiar ties to promote peace, cultivate harmony, and live in concord and brotherly love.

III.—Of LODGES.

A LODGE is a place where free-masons assemble to work and to instruct and improve themselves in the mysteries of the antient science. In an extended sense it applies to persons, as well as to place; hence every regular assembly or duly organised meeting of masons is called a lodge. Every brother ought to belong to some lodge, and be subject to its by-laws and the general regulations of the craft. A lodge may be either general or particular, as will be best understood by attending it, and there a knowledge of the established usages and customs of the craft is alone to be acquired. From antient times no master or fellow could be absent from his lodge, especially when warned to appear at it, without incurring a severe censure, unless it appeared to the master and wardens that pure necessity hindered him.

The persons made masons or admitted members of a lodge must be good and true men, free-born, and of mature and discreet age and sound judgment, no bond-men, no women, no immoral or scandalous men, but of good report,

IV.—Of MASTERS, WARDENS, FELLOWS, and APPRENTICES.

All preferment among masons is grounded upon real worth and personal merit only ; that so the lords may be well served, the brethren not put to shame, nor the royal craft despised ; therefore no master or warden is chosen by seniority, but for his merit. It is impossible to describe these things in writing, and therefore every brother must attend in his place, and learn them in a way peculiar to this fraternity. Candidates may, nevertheless, know that no master should take an apprentice unless he has sufficient employment for him ; and, unless he be a perfect youth, having no maim or defect in his body that may render him incapable of learning the art, of serving his master's lord, and of being made a brother, and then a fellow-craft in due time, after he has served such a term of years as the custom of the country directs ; and that he should be descended of honest parents ; that so, when otherwise qualified, he may arrive to the honour of being the warden, and then the master of the lodge, the grand warden, and at length the grand master of all the lodges, according to his merit.

No brother can be a warden until he has passed the part of a fellow-craft, nor a master until he has acted as a warden, nor grand warden until he has been master of a lodge, nor grand master unless he has been a fellow-craft before his election, who is also to be nobly born, or a gentleman of the best fashion, or some eminent scholar, or some curious architect, or other artist descended of honest parents, and who is of singularly great merit in the opinion of the lodges. And for the better, and easier, and more honourable discharge of his office, the grand master has the power to choose his own deputy grand master, who must then be, or have formerly been, the master of a particular lodge, and who has the privilege of acting whatever the grand master, his principal, should act, unless the said principal be present, or interpose his authority by letter.

These rulers and governors supreme and subordinate, of the antient lodge, are to be obeyed in their respective stations by all the brethren, according to the old charges and regulations, with all humility, reverence, love, and alacrity.

N.B.—In antient times no brother, however skilled in the craft, was called a master-mason until he had been elected into the chair of a lodge.

V.—Of the MANAGEMENT of the CRAFT in WORKING.

ALL masons shall work honestly on working days, that they may live creditably on holy days ; and the time appointed by the law of the land, or confirmed by custom, shall be observed.

The most expert of the fellow-craftsmen shall be chosen or appointed the master, or overseer of the lord's work ; who is to be called master by those that work under him. The craftsmen are to avoid all ill language, and to call each other by no disobliging name, but brother or fellow ; and to behave themselves courteously within and without the lodge.

The master, knowing himself to be able of cunning, shall undertake the lord's work as reasonably as possible, and truly dispend his goods as if they were his own ; nor to give more wages to any brother or apprentice than he really may deserve.

Both the master and the masons receiving their wages justly, shall be faithful to the lord, and honestly finish their work, whether task or journey ; nor put the work to task that hath been accustomed to journey.

None shall discover envy at the prosperity of a brother, nor supplant him, nor put him out of his work, if he be capable to finish the same ; for no man can finish another's work so much to the lord's profit, unless he be thoroughly acquainted with the designs and draughts of him that began it.

When a fellow-craftsman is chosen warden of the work under the master, he shall be true both to master and fellows, shall carefully oversee the work in the master's absence, to the lord's profit ; and his brethren shall obey him.

All masons employed shall meekly receive their wages without murmuring or mutiny, and not desert the master till the work be finished.

A younger brother shall be instructed in working, to prevent spoiling the materials for want of judgment and for increasing and continuing of brotherly love.

All the tools used in working shall be approved by the grand lodge.

No labourer shall be employed in the proper work of masonry ; nor shall free-masons work with those that are not free, without an urgent necessity ; nor shall they teach labourers and unaccepted masons as they should teach a brother or fellow.

VI.—OF BEHAVIOUR.

I.—IN THE LODGE WHILE CONSTITUTED.

You are not to hold private committees, or separate conversation, without leave from the master; nor to talk of anything impertinently or unseemly, nor interrupt the master or wardens, or any brother speaking to the master; nor behave yourself ludicrously or jestingly while the lodge is engaged in what is serious and solemn; nor use any unbecoming language upon any pretence whatsoever, but to pay due reverence to your master, wardens, and fellows, and put them to worship.

If any complaint be brought, the brother found guilty shall stand to the award and determination of the lodge, who are the proper and competent judges of all such controversies (unless you carry them by appeal to the grand lodge), and to whom they ought to be referred, unless a lord's work be hindered the mean while, in which case a particular reference may be made, but you must never go to law about what concerneth masonry without an absolute necessity apparent to the lodge.

2.—BEHAVIOUR AFTER THE LODGE IS OVER, AND THE BRETHREN NOT GONE

YOU may enjoy yourselves with innocent mirth, treating one another according to ability, but avoiding all excess, or forcing any brother to eat or drink beyond his inclination, or hindering him from going when his occasions call him, or doing or saying anything offensive, or that may forbid an easy and free conversation ; for that would blast our harmony, and defeat our laudable purposes. Therefore no private piques or quarrels must be brought within the door of the lodge, far less any quarrels about religion, or nations, or state policy, we being only, as masons, of the universal religion above-mentioned ; we are also of all nations, tongues, kindreds, and languages, and are resolved against all politics, as what never yet conduced to the welfare of the lodge, nor ever will.

3.—BEHAVIOUR WHEN BRETHREN MEET WITH-OUT STRANGERS, BUT NOT IN A LODGE FORMED.

YOU are to salute one another in a courteous manner, as you will be instructed, calling each other brother, freely giving mutual instruction as shall be thought expedient, without being overseen or overheard, and without encroaching upon each other, or derogating from that respect which is due to any brother, were he not a mason ; for though all masons are, as brethren, upon the same level, yet masonry takes no honour from a man that he had before ; nay, rather it adds to his honour, especially if he has deserved well of the brotherhood, who must give honour to whom it is due, and avoid ill manners.

4.—BEHAVIOUR IN PRESENCE OF STRANGERS, NOT MASONS.

You shall be cautious in your words and carriage, that the most penetrating stranger shall not be able to discover or find out what is not proper to be intimated ; and sometimes you shall divert a discourse, and manage it prudently for the honour of the worshipful fraternity.

5.—BEHAVIOUR AT HOME AND IN YOUR NEIGHBOURHOOD.

You are to act as becomes a moral and wise man ; particularly not to let your family, friends, and neighbours, know the concerns of the lodge, &c., but wisely to consult your own honour, and that of your antient brotherhood, for reasons not to be mentioned here. You must also consult your health by not continuing together too late or too long from home after lodge hours are past; and by avoiding of gluttony or drunkenness, that your families be not neglected or injured, nor you disabled from working.

6.—BEHAVIOUR TOWARDS A STRANGE
BROTHER.

You are cautiously to examine him in such a method as prudence shall direct you, that you may not be imposed upon by an ignorant, false pretender, whom you are to reject with contempt and derision, and beware of giving him any hints of knowledge.

But if you discover him to be a true and genuine brother, you are to respect him accordingly; and if he is in want you must relieve him if you can, or else direct him how he may be relieved. You must employ him some days, or else recommend him to be employed. But you are not charged to do beyond your ability; only to prefer a poor brother that is a good man and true before any other poor people in the same circumstances.

Finally.—All these charges you are to observe and also those that shall be communicated to you in another way; cultivating brotherly love, the foundation and cope-stone, the cement and glory, of this antient fraternity, avoiding all wrangling and quarrelling, all slander and backbiting, nor permitting others to slander any honest brother but defending his character and doing him all good offices, as far as is consistent with your honour and safety, and no farther. And if any of them do you injury, you must apply to your own or his lodge; and from thence you may appeal to the grand lodge at the quarterly communication, as has been the antient laudable conduct of our forefathers in every nation; never taking a legal course but when the case cannot be otherwise decided, and patiently listening to the honest and friendly advice of master and fellows, when they would prevent your going to law with strangers, or would excite you to put a speedy period to all law-suits, that so you may find the affair of masonry with the more alacrity and success; but with respect to brothers or fellows at law, the master and brethren should kindly offer their mediation, which ought to be thankfully submitted to by the contending brethren; and if that submission is impracticable, they must, however, carry on their process, or law-suit, without wrath and rancour (not in the common way), saying or doing nothing which may hinder brotherly love and good offices to be renewed and continued, that all may see the benign influence of masonry, as all true masons have done from the beginning of the world, and will do to the end of time.

Amen, so mote it be.

The proposition shall not be carried unless two-thirds of the members voting shall agree to the removal. If the Master should fail or refuse to issue the summons, that duty shall devolve on the Senior Warden, or failing him, the Junior Warden.

No London Lodge, or Lodge in the Colonies or foreign parts not within a District, can be removed without the consent of the Grand Master, and no Provincial Lodge can be removed without the consent of the Grand Master and the Provincial Grand Master. If the proposed removal should be from one Province or District into another, the consent of the Provincial or District Grand Master of each Province or District must be obtained. With respect to Lodges within Districts, the consent of the District Grand Master is alone required for the removal of a Lodge from one place to another within the same District.

The Lodge may require payment of the arrears as a condition precedent to election. This Rule shall not prevent a Lodge proceeding against any of its members under Rule 210 for non-payment of contributions according to its by-laws, for a shorter period than three years, provided such non-payment shall not have arisen by reason of such members having been in the service of the Crown or its Allies for the time being as aforesaid, or having been persons whose employment was of the nature hereinbefore mentioned. When a Brother ceases to be a mem-

A Brother who has been concerned in ^{Assisting at} making Masons clandestinely, or at a Lodge which ^{irregular} is not a regular Lodge, or for small and unworthy ^{Lodges.} considerations, or who may assist in forming a new Lodge without the Grand Master's authority, shall not be admitted as a member, or even as a

Not less than seven days' notice in writing shall also be served upon each member of the Lodge of the intention to propose such a resolution. The notices shall be considered duly served if sent by post to the last known address of each member, except that, in the case of the member against whom the complaint is made, service shall be effected by registered post. formation of Sovereign
Grand

218a. In a Colony or Foreign part in which a District Grand Lodge exists, if the District Grand Master shall think proper to grant a dispensation for that purpose, it shall be lawful for any Lodge to hold a special meeting, or meetings, to discuss and resolve on the question of the formation of a Sovereign Grand Lodge for or including the District or part thereof, or any neighbouring District or part thereof, or any Lodges not in a District. Such dispensation may be granted subject to any conditions that the District Grand Master may deem proper, and also to provisions enabling two or more Lodges to unite in the special meeting; and, if the District Grand Master should refuse to grant a dispensation, an appeal may be made to the Grand Master. In a Colony or Foreign part in which more than one District Grand Lodge exists the same procedure shall be adopted in each District, and before any Grand Lodge shall be recognised as having jurisdiction over the whole of such Colony or Foreign part, the consent of each District Grand Lodge shall be certified by the District Grand Master thereof.

218b. Whenever Grand Lodge shall, with the ^{Regulations} assent of the Grand Master, recognise a Grand Lodge as a regular and independent Sovereign Body, having jurisdiction in any Colony or Foreign part where a District Grand Lodge or Lodges not in a District exist, and the Grand Master shall signify it is not his intention to grant for the future any warrant for a new Lodge in that jurisdiction, the following rules shall apply :—

1. Within six months after recognition the Master of every Lodge in such jurisdiction shall convene a special meeting of the Lodge on not less than twenty-one days' notice to every member ; failing the Master, the District Grand Master or the acting Deputy shall convene such meeting, and preside thereat.

2. The Brethren present at such meeting, whose names appear as subscribing members on the last return filed with the Grand Secretary, shall decide whether they desire that the Lodge shall continue under the Grand Lodge of England or not. If the decision be to join the new Grand Lodge, the Brethren shall, at the same meeting, decide in whom the property and effects of the Lodge shall be vested, and the Warrant shall be forthwith returned to the Grand Secretary to be delivered up to the Grand Master. A majority of two-thirds of the members present shall be required to carry such resolutions.
3. No questions shall be discussed or put at such meeting other than those above prescribed.
4. Immediately after such meeting a full copy of the minutes and a list from the signature book of all members attending, together with the numbers voting for or against, shall be sent to the Grand Secretary, veri-

5. No second meeting shall be called to discuss the above questions without the special leave of the Grand Master.

219. Whenever the number of subscribing members of any Lodge, as shown on the last return to Grand Lodge, shall be fewer than five, the Lodge shall cease to meet, and the warrant, books, and papers shall be delivered up to the Grand Master, who may, nevertheless, if he thinks proper, grant a dispensation to enable the members to meet, subject to such conditions as he may deem expedient, until he finally decides whether or not the Lodge shall be continued.

220. Should a Lodge fail to meet for one year, it shall be liable to be erased.

226. If the President, or either of the Vice-Presidents, or any of the twelve elected Past Masters die or be removed, the vacancy shall be filled up. If it be the President, by the Grand Master; if it be one elected by the Grand Lodge, then by the Grand Lodge at the next Quarterly Communication. In cases where an election is to take place in the Grand Lodge, notice thereof shall be given to the Grand Secretary seven days previous to the meeting of the Board of General Purposes immediately preceding the next Quarterly Communication, and the names of candidates nominated to fill such vacancies must also then be given.

Absent
Masters
may be represented.

227. If the actual Master of the year of any Lodge cannot attend, the immediate Past Master may supply his place; should that Brother be unable to attend, any other Past Master of such Lodge may act for him; but in every case the Past Master must be a subscribing member of the Lodge.

Responsibility of President.

231. The members shall not be subject to canvass or previous solicitation, but shall have their minds free from prejudice, to decide on the merits of each case with the impartiality and purity of Masonic feeling. If it shall appear that this rule has been wilfully transgressed, the consideration of the case shall be deferred for the space of three months.

232. If any Master of a Lodge or any member of the Board shall canvass or otherwise solicit on behalf of a petitioner, he shall be rendered incapable of attending as a member of the Board of Benevolence for twelve months.

Disqualifi-
voting

233. No member shall at any time vote upon the petition of any person for whom he may have been canvassed, or to whom he is related, nor upon the petition of a Brother, or widow of a Brother who is, or was, a member of a Lodge to which he himself belongs. Such member may be heard on the merits of the petition, but must then withdraw.

Qualifications for relief.

234. Except as hereinafter provided, no Mason registered under the constitution of the Grand Lodge of England shall receive the benefit of this fund unless he has paid the full initiation or joining fee, has continued a subscribing member to a contributing Lodge for at least five years, and during that period paid his quarterly dues to the Fund of Benevolence. Provided that if a Brother has not paid his subscriptions by reason of his having been in the service of the Crown or its Allies for the time being as mentioned in Rule 175 or having been a person whose employment was of the nature therein mentioned, or having been a person who has abstained from attendance at a Lodge as therein mentioned, he shall be deemed for the purposes of this Rule during the period of such service or employment to have paid his subscriptions and his quarterly dues to the Fund of Benevolence. The limitation of five years, however, does not apply to the cases of shipwreck, capture at sea, loss by fire, or blindness, or serious accident, fully attested and proved. Any Brother who has ceased subscribing for the immediate past twenty years shall not be eligible to petition the Board unless he has previously subscribed to his Lodge for fifteen years or upwards.

235. Secretaries who, by the by-laws of their Lodges, are exempted from the payment of subscription, shall be considered in all respects as regular subscribing members of their Lodges, their services being equivalent to subscription, provided their dues to the Grand Lodge have been paid.

236. A serving Brother who, under the provisions of Rule 193, has paid, through the Lodge in which he was initiated, the quarterly dues to the Fund of Benevolence for ten years at least, is eligible to be relieved in case of distress, in the same manner as if he had been a regular subscribing member.

Neglect
to make payments to be reported.

237. If, on enquiry into any petition, it shall appear that any Brother has paid to his Lodge the full fees, including the register fee, and also five years' quarterage, but that the Lodge has neglected to register such Brother or transmit the dues to the Grand Lodge, the Board of Benevolence may relieve the petitioner, and shall forthwith report the case to the Board of General Purposes, that the Lodge may be rigorously proceeded against for withholding moneys the property of the Grand Lodge.

Relief of widows and children.

238. The Board of Benevolence may also grant relief to the indigent widow, or child, of a deceased Mason registered in accordance with Rule 234 or who was a subscribing member of a Colonial Lodge under the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of England and who would himself have been qualified to receive assistance; or of a Brother who shall have died within five years from the period of his initiation, or of his having joined an English Lodge from a Foreign Lodge, and who shall have continued a subscribing member to the time of his decease.

Certificates
required.

239. Before the petition of a widow or child shall be taken into consideration, the Grand Lodge or other Masonic certificate of the deceased Brother, and those of his marriage and death, or burial, and in the cases of children, of their births or baptisms, shall be deposited with the Grand Secretary. In the case of loss of any of the above-named certificates, or impossibility to procure them, the Board may, nevertheless, grant relief if such loss or impossibility be proved, and the facts otherwise established to the satisfaction of the Board.

240. When application for relief is made on behalf of a child or children only, such application must be made within five years of the death of the father, and whilst the child or children is or are under age. Limit of time for relief to children.

241. Brethren under the constitution of the Grand Lodges of Scotland and Ireland, as well as of Foreign Grand Lodges, and members of Colonial Lodges, may be relieved on the production of certificates from their respective Grand Lodges, or other sufficient certificates and testimonials to the satisfaction of the Board of Benevolence, and proof of identity and distress, and of having paid at least five years' subscription to a regular Lodge, it being understood that in the case of Foreign Brethren, such relief if exceeding five pounds, except in case of sickness, is intended to assist them to return to their native land, or to any country in which they have been established or have friends. Foreign Petitioners.

for relief.

242. Applications for relief must be by petition, stating the name, occupation, place of abode, and present circumstances of the petitioner, the name and number of the Lodge in which and the time when he (or the husband or father, in the case of the petition of a widow, child, or children) was initiated, and the other Lodges, if any, which he afterwards joined, The applicant, unless disabled by disease or accident, must sign the petition.

Recommendation of petition.

243. To every petition must be added a recommendation, signed in open Lodge, by the Master, Wardens, and a majority of the members then present, of a Lodge to which the petitioner (or the husband or a father, in the case of the petition of a widow, child or children), does or did belong, certifying that they know him or have good reasons for believing him to have been in reputable, or at least tolerable, circumstances, and that he has or had been not less than five years an actual contributing member, paying the stipulated subscriptions to the funds of a regular Lodge, as well as quarterage to the Fund of Benevolence, when not included in the subscription to the Lodge, with such other observations as they may think proper. Provided that if a Brother has not paid his subscriptions by reason of his having been in the service of the Crown or its Allies for the time being as mentioned in Rule 175 or having been a person whose employment was of the nature therein mentioned or having been a person who has abstained from attendance at a Lodge as therein mentioned he shall be deemed for the purposes of this Rule during the period of such service or employment to have paid the stipulated subscriptions as well as quarterage to the Fund of Benevolence when not included in the subscription to the Lodge. If the Lodge cannot certify to any necessary fact, the same may be struck out and the real fact inserted, with any explanation that may be advisable. It shall not be permissible for any Lodge to refuse to certify as to any of its petitioning members or their widows or children; but if a Lodge has been erased or suspended, or has temporarily ceased to meet, or its next regular meeting will not be held within a convenient time, then the necessary recommendation may be made by some other Lodge which contributes to the Fund and can give the necessary information. Every petition recommended by a Provincial or District Lodge shall be forwarded to the Provincial or District Grand Secretary of the Province or District in which the applicant's Lodge is situate, for his report on the circumstances therein set forth; but in the case of members of unattached Colonial Lodges, and of Brethren under the constitutions of the Grand Lodges of Ireland or Scotland, or of Foreign Lodges, a recommendation attached to the petition and signed by a Brother registered under the constitution of the Grand Lodge of England shall be sufficient.

Form of recommendation.

244. To prevent mistakes in the recommendation of petitions, the following form is proposed which may be altered as circumstances require.

We, the undersigned, being the Master, Wardens, and majority of the members present, in open Lodge assembled, of Lodge No. _____ called _____ and held at _____ this _____ day of _____ 19____, do hereby certify, that the within-named petitioner has been a regular contributing member, paying the stipulated subscription to this Lodge, for the space of _____ years, and that we have known him, or have good reasons for believing him to have been, in reputable circumstances, and do therefore recommend him to the Board of Benevolence for relief, having satisfactory grounds for believing the allegations set forth in his petition to be true.

Petitioners to be visited.

245. A visit shall be paid to every applicant by the Master or some member of the Lodge, or some other Brother, who shall, in writing, on a form to be from time to time settled by the President and Vice-Presidents of the Board of Benevolence and the Grand Secretary, certify to the best of his information and belief to the actual condition of the applicant, his age, profession or calling, means of subsistence, what aid he receives from his family, his future prospects, the position he has held in the Craft, and any matter that may guide the Board in adjusting the distribution of relief from its funds. The application of widows or children to be accompanied with a like certificate so far as practicable, with the probable disposal of the funds if relieved. Every Brother certifying shall also state that he is not aware of any circumstance disentitling the applicant to relief, or which ought to be disclosed to the Board of Benevolence before it deals with the application. In all London cases the Brother giving the certificate, or some other Brother who has visited the case, shall attend the Board of Benevolence on the consideration of the petition.

N.B.—Masters of Lodges or visiting Brethren are earnestly requested to forward the fullest particulars of each case, to enable the Board to relieve the applicants to the utmost extent of its means.

his absence one of the Vice-Presidents may at his discretion, direct an immediate payment of a sum not exceeding forty pounds on account.
